

The value of deluxe cruising.

We're all familiar with the big cruise lines, Carnival, Royal Caribbean, etc., which offer fine cruises for many.

Deluxe cruises, those which cater to travelers who might stay at a hotel such as a Four Seasons or Ritz Carlton, offer perhaps the best value in cruising today.

Open seating dining; concierge and butler service; all-suite accommodations; intimate, luxurious surroundings; truly spectacular cuisine and dining experience; exotic, smaller ports; world-class spa facilities; well traveled and interesting fellow passengers, are just some of the accouterments and plusses to be found aboard these vessels.

Surprisingly, the "standard" accommodations aboard deluxe ships are priced competitively to higher end or suite accommodation aboard premium brand cruise lines, with considerable added value to the traveler.

Cruise lines which occupy this niche include Silversea, Seabourn, Crystal, Cunard, Radisson Seven Seas, Seadream Yacht Cruises and Oceania.

If you've ever considered this type of vacation, let an experienced cruise expert compare options - you'll be pleasantly surprised at the value they offer!
